Per federal law, an individual may contribute a maximum of $2,800 for the Primary Election and $2,800 for the General Election or a total of $5,600 per election cycle. A married couple may contribute a maximum of $11,200 per cycle and may make contributions from a joint account, but each contributor must sign the check or a statement that accompanies the contribution describing the joint attribution. A qualified federal PAC may contribute a maximum of $5,000 per election or $10,000 per election cycle.

Contributions to Kathy Barnette for Congress are not tax deductible as charitable donations for federal income tax purposes. Federal law requires political committees to use their best efforts to obtain and report the name, mailing address, occupation and employer of each individual whose contributions aggregate in excess of $200 in an election cycle. Contributions from corporations, foreign nationals and federal government contractors are prohibited.
